Golden Autumn in Tyrolean Lech Valley

Every day turns into a pure delight at our wellness and family hotel Alpenrose.

Not only our mountains, but also your every day delight is higher. The natural background of Tyrolean Lech Valley, which is picturesque especially in autumn, is just the overture of unforgettable holidays. Being active is fun and regenerates your soul. Hut to hut walking tours, nordic walking, biking and mountain biking are classical activities in this natural landscape. Trekking and walking routes – light, medium or difficult – are very numerous. Also mountain climbers will find many attractive places to explore. Our hotel offers you good-quality bicycles and mountainbikes. After an intensive day characterized by various outdoor activities you can enjoy the evening in the sign of comfort and relaxation. You can relax they way you want and feel yourself at home.
